

Sergeant honored

Middlesex Sheriff Peter J. Koutoujian announced this week that Sgt. Kenneth Woods of Tewksbury as Employee of the Month for February 2012.

Woods works at the Middlesex Jail in Cambridge on the 4-12 receiving shift. He was nominated by his peers because of his enthusiastic dedication to public safety and leadership on the tiers at the Middlesex Sheriff's Office.

Woods has 16 years of dedicated service at the Middlesex Sheriff's Office. He is a proven leader who leads by example. Woods is a consummate professional who consistently demonstrates a superior work ethic. He diligently monitors and controls contraband to ensure high levels of safety within the facility at all times. His attention to detail and exceptional commitment are worthy of commendation. His enthusiasm for his work and his dedication to public safety is evident by his ability to promote a safe and secure working environment for both officers and inmates.

Woods is an exceptional role model to his colleagues, combining a sincere interest for the welfare of his co-workers without compromising his duties of custody and control.

