

MIDDLESEX COUNTY SHERIFF Peter Koutoujian recently deputized some 200 youngsters from area communities including Woburn and Wakefield after they completed the 2011 Middlesex Sheriff's Office Youth Public Safety Academy. The graduation was held from facilities in Billerica. The cadets ranged in age from 9 to 11 and were recognized for their hard work and dedication. Woburn officials taking part in the graduation were School Committee members Patricia Chisholm and Michael Mulrenan, Alderman at large Richard Haggerty, Police Sgt. Paul Tenney and Gary Reese of the Woburn Public Schools. Cadets learned about police and fire work as well as first aid.

